4th Annual “Jump In and Swim” White Plains!

WHITE PLAINS, NY – March 4, 2016. White Plains’ 4th Annual “Jump In and Swim” Month begins March 16 and will run through April 2, 2016. The schedule of events for this City-wide initiative may be found on the City website: www.whiteplainsny.gov. Events will be held throughout the City at various locations. Participating agencies will offer free swim classes and activities to residents of all ages.

Mayor Tom Roach extended a special “thank you” to the agencies participating in this effort to help children and adults learn basic swim skills and water safety and noted that these partners “have all been with us in previous years. They have demonstrated their commitment to this initiative and recognize the importance of what we are trying to achieve.” They are:

White Plains Hospital
White Plains Recreation and Parks Department
White Plains YMCA
YWCA White Plains & Central Westchester
White Plains Youth Bureau
The White Plains City School District

Each agency has contributed time and resources to making “Jump in and Swim” a success for the residents of White Plains. Some of the activities on tap include:

- Appearances by U.S Olympian swimmer Chloe Sutton at various Elementary schools in the White Plains Public School District
- A Swim Jamboree for families at the White Plains YMCA
- Learn to swim activities for participants in the White Plains Youth Bureau After-school Program hosted by the White Plains High School Swim Team
- Swim Clinic hosted by Olympian Chloe Sutton
- Learn-to Swim classes hosted by the YWCA White Plains & Central Westchester
- Splash Week - Learn to Swim activities at the White Plains YMCA
- A Water Olympics and Aqua Zumba Pool Party hosted by the White Plains Recreation and Parks
- A Pool party hosted by the YWCA White Plains & Central Westchester

In addition, White Plains Hospital has arranged for participants to receive free of charge a bathing towel to commemorate this City-wide initiative (while supplies last).
