THE CITY OF WHITE PLAINS PRESENTS THE FRIGHTFULLY FUN FESTIVAL HALLOWEEN EVENT

White Plains, NY – October 23, 2017. The pumpkins are carved. The candy has been purchased. The costumes are begging to be worn. The anticipation is building and the kids are getting...EXCITED! When Halloween arrives, youngsters around White Plains will be out trick-or-treating. The White Plains Department of Public Safety offers the following tips to ensure a fun and safe Halloween: Halloween Safety Tips.

Calling all White Plains ghosts, witches, princesses, Jedi knights, Hogwarts students, and super heroes...Don't forget about the City of White Plains' Frightfully Fun Festival Halloween Event.

Come on down to Court Street (between Main St & Martine Ave) in costume on Sunday, October 29 from Noon to 4:00 p.m. Enjoy this bewitching holiday in a safe, fun, and festive atmosphere with music, crafts, magic, pumpkin picking, hay maze, refreshments and plenty of treats for all. This year's event will feature a Masquerade Parade in the downtown for all to participate in or enjoy as a spectator. Prizes awarded for many costume categories. The afternoon promises to be fun for families, preschoolers and elementary age children.

Please note: Most of the activities are free but there is a nominal charge for some venues.
