COFFEE WITH GRANDPAS WITH RON CLAIBORNE

WHITE PLAINS, NY – Feb. 7, 2022 – Grandpas United of the White Plains Youth Bureau welcomes guest speaker Ron Claiborne at its upcoming virtual Coffee With Grandpas event on Friday, February 18 at 9:30am.

Ron Claiborne retired from ABC News in 2018, after 32 years as a national and international news correspondent. He was also the news anchor of the weekend edition of Good Morning America for 14 years until his retirement. He currently writes the weekly Second Acts column for the Facebook platform Bulletin. He is also an adjunct professor of broadcast journalism at Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism.

During his journalism career, he covered major news stories in more than 40 countries including Iraq, Afghanistan, the Persian Gulf, China, Cuba, South Africa and countries in Africa, South America and Europe. He reported on three presidential campaigns, the Iraq War in 2003, and both Persian Gulf wars.

For Zoom access details, please call the White Plains Youth Bureau at 914-422-1378 or email GrandpasUnitedWPYB@gmail.com

The mission of Grandpas United is to utilize their talents, skills and experiences to improve our community. They aspire to serve as male role models and mentors to enhance the growth and development of our youth, while sharing their talents and experiences with one another, enabling them to maintain their dignity, self-respect and self-worth.

Grandpas United has received local, state and national recognition for its efforts helping children and youth to succeed. The program has received awards from Encore and Generations United. For more information about Grandpas United, visit www.whiteplainsyouthbureau.org or call 913-422-1378.
